

Reflection Points

Passages

'George Fox and his early followers', wrote Rufus Jones, 'went forth with unbounded faith and enthusiasm to discover in all lands those who were true fellow-members with them in this great household of God, and who were the hidden seed of God.' Our Society thus arose from a series of mutual discoveries of men and women who found that they were making the same spiritual pilgrimage

From Quaker faith and practice 11.42

"The Kingdom of Heaven did gather us and catch us all, as in a net, and his heavenly power at one time drew many hundreds to land. We came to know a place to stand in and what to wait in; and the Lord appeared daily to us, to our astonishment, amazement and great admiration".

Francis Howgill from Quaker faith and practice 19.08